

Kimberly DeProspero, CFP®
CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™
Financial Strategies Group

Kimberly DeProspero is focused on giving more. With over 28 years' experience, Kimberly dedicates her time and expertise to addressing her clients' unique financial needs. She is passionate about helping people achieve financial independence, offering her skills as a financial counselor, business investment coach, and custom financial planner.

Kimberly founded Financial Strategies Group in 2003 and merged practices with her husband, Hank Cleare, CFP®, in 2009. Together, Kim and Hank offer a rare and valuable dynamic in financial planning services: a dual perspective. They blend their Atlanta and Weston, Florida-based practices into a 'family office', offering concierge-level services to each and every client.

Kimberly hosts quarterly women's events in Weston, famous for their fun and flair. She talks about why 'A Man Is Not a Plan', offering valuable advice on financial empowerment for women. Kimberly also frequently lectures on Retirement Planning, Estate Planning and Income Distribution Strategies.

Kimberly is a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professional, is series 7 registered, and holds a Registered Principal registration through LPL Financial. She is a proud member of the Atlanta-based independent financial planning consortium, Integrated Financial Group, and a member of the Financial Planning Association, the National Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors, and Financial Services Institute (FSI). FSI is an advocacy group focused on independent financial advisors. She graduated from Auburn University and completed the executive development program at the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Business. Kimberly and her firm support the Lung Cancer Alliance of Florida, Toys For Tots, Angel Flight, a nonprofit that arranges free flights for charitable and medical needs, as well as the Broward chapter Alzheimer's Association.

Kimberly and Hank live in Weston and maintain their time between the Atlanta and Weston offices. In 2013, they welcomed Kimberly's son, Nicholas Rios, into their family practice. Kimberly's younger son, Chris, graduated from Cypress Bay. He is now studying at the University of New Hampshire's business school. Kim stays fit and active, enjoying travel, running, and scuba diving in the Keys.

To get in touch with Kim, email Kimberly@FSGPlanners.com or call 954-888-4680.